THE ENCAMPMENT. -It has been for some time expected that an encampment of the the Nelson County Agricultural and Me Sa'e Guard would soon be necessary. The necessity has now arrived, and with it, the annoncement of a camp, to be held to morrow, on the south bank of Salt river, 19 miles from the city The Nashville Railroad passes near to the camp: and six companies of the State Guard leave by that east room of the Court-house, this evening road for the encompment this afternoon at five o'clock. Gen. Buckner has command of the camp, and no member of the Blute Guard who dosires to know the duties of a camp. It is somewhat remarkable that during the present crisis, the donations for such subsistance as is necessary for camp service, were provided in the city almost without solicitation.

ATTENTION ANDERSON HOME GUARDS, COMPANY D - Every member is notified to attend a meeting on Wednesday evening, May 221, at 71 o'clock, at the Union Engine Rouse Itall, Jefferson street, below Eixth street. Business of vital importance is to be attended to, and every member should be present.

Do you give it up? It would have been better if you had done that long ago. Well! we can't answer difinitely; but it will certainly coet more than it is worth.

SERIOUS CHARGE -The United States District Attorney in New York, on Thursday. applied to Judge Nelson in the United States Circuit Court, for a warrant for the arrest of a certain party charged under the procees of the Recorder's Court of Philadelphie with the murder of one of the coldiers while going through Baltimore. Judge Nelson denied the application on the ground that the Court could not grant a Federal warrant on the process of a State Judge.

A REVOLUTIONARY SWORD. -The Scottsville (Va) Register says that Lieut. Lewellen, of the Scottsville Guard, has been presented with a sword used in the revolu tionary war by Mr. Coles, the grandfather of Mr. Thomas S. Colee, on Green Mountain. It contains seven stars on one side, representing the first seven States formed, and on the other the old thirteen.

ARREST OF A CORKESPONDENT -A man named Underhill, a violent Abolitionist and known as the correspondent of the New York Tribune, was taken from the mail train at liarper's Ferry, between eleven and twelve o'clock, and placed in the encampment. Underhill, when taken, was returning from the Wheeling Convention of Western Virginia. Ilis arrest and detention was made by the Virginia military DEPARTER FOR THE CAMP -A very large concourse of people assembled at the court house yesterday to witness the departure of a battalion of the State Guard for the encampment at Salt river. The companies appeared to be fully equipped for their campaign drill, and left the city in good spirits, carrying with them the good wishes of wives, mothers, and sweethearts. We shall have regular bulletine of their camp life, and shall keep our readers advised of all their scrapes by flood and field.

SMALL-POX AT FORTHESS MONROE.-The Norfolk correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch states that the small-pox is raging among the troops at Fortress Monroe, and purpose we are unable to say, and then adds that the physicians of that city are desirens of volunteering their services. The Commercial also learns from an authentic source that the extra session of authentic source that the extra session of Bueiness will be abort. Bueiness will be a second accordance of the second accord Congress will be short. Bueiness will be compactly arranged and presented. According to present appearances, almost perfect unanimity will prevail.

An impetus will be given the loval sentiment, and everything done that can to bring the contest to a speedy termination.

Elmportant information just obtained leads to the firm belief that England and France will concur with our Government in the stens taken to reassert its authority. This stens taken to reassert its authority. This ment, and everything done that can to bring resentatives in Washington. A cordial J. D. Br Louis, May 21 .- Major General Price, Commander in Chief of the Missouri militia, arrived last night, and this morning had an Interview with General Harney, when a plan was agreed upon for the maintacance of peace and the avoidance of future conflicts between the Federal and State Governments. They mutually declare a common object, that of restoring peace and good order to the people of the State, in subordination to the laws of the General and State Governmente, and unite in requesting all persons to respect each others rights throughout the State, and make no stempt to exercise unlawful powers, as it is the determination of the proper authori-ties to suppress all unlawful proceedings which can only disturb the public peace General Price pledges the whole power of the State officers to maintain order among the people of the State, and Gen Harne declares that this object being assured, he can have no occasion, as he has no wish to make military movements which might atherwise ereste excitement and jealousie which, he most earnestly desires to avoid They, therefore, enjoin upon the people to attend to their civil business, and express a hope that the unquiet elements which have threatened so seriously to disturb the pub-lio peace, may soon subside, and be remem-bered only to be deplored. I'rivate dispatches from liclena announce the explosion of the steamer Kentucky yesterlay, and not less than twenty lives were lost including both clerks, but no particulars are given.
